The aforementioned audited annual financial statements, together with the Annual Report on the status of AD Plastik Group for 2023 and the Report by the Supervisory Board on the performed supervision over the management of the business of AD Plastik Group for 2023 shall be submitted to the General Assembly, which shall not decide this item of the agenda.

The proposed amendment to the Remuneration Policy does not determine the new remuneration of the members of the Management Board, nor does it change the ranges of individual remuneration as already established in the previous text of the Remuneration Policy, but it is primarily about harmonizing it with the mentioned amendments to Article 247a paragraph 1 of the Act, i.e. it is proposed to supplement point 1 of the Remuneration Policy in such a way as to determine the total remuneration of a member of the Company's Management Board for a particular year, all as detailed in the Draft Decision.

MANAGEMENT BOARD of AD PLASTIK d.d., Solin

Appendix 1

Independent limited assurance report on the Remuneration Report of AD Plastik d.d.

Independent limited assurance report on the Remuneration Report of AD Plastik d.d.

to the Management Board and the Supervisory Board of AD Plastik d.d.

We were engaged by the Management Board of AD Plastik d.d. (the "Company") to express limited assurance on the Remuneration Report for the year 2023 („Report“), attached as an appendix, in the form of a conclusion that, based on the procedures carried out and the evidence collected, nothing came to our attention to make us suspect that the attached Report is not prepared in accordance with the requirements specified in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 272r of the Corporations Act applicable in the Republic of Croatia.

Management Board and Supervisory Board responsibilities

Management Board and Supervisory Board are responsible for:

- the preparation of the Remuneration Report for 2023 in accordance with the requirements for publication set out in Article 272 r, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Corporations Act;
- determination of individuals who will be included in the Remuneration Report in accordance with Article 272 r, paragraph 1 of the Corporations Act;
- selection and application of appropriate remuneration policies, as well as for making reasonable judgments and assessments in relation to the data published in the Remuneration Report;
- measurement of remuneration for the year ending December 31, 2023 in accordance with the provisions of Article 272 r, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Corporations Act; and
- publication of the Remuneration Report on the Company's website in accordance with the provisions of Article 272 r, paragraph 4 of the Corporations Act.

Management Board is responsible for:

- designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error;
- measurement and reporting of remuneration in accordance with the Reporting Criteria;
- selecting and applying policies as well as making judgments and estimates that are reasonable in relation to the preparation of the Remuneration Report.

Our responsibility

Our responsibility is to examine the Remuneration Report and to report thereon in the form of an independent limited assurance report on the Remuneration Report based on the evidence obtained. We conducted our engagement in accordance with International Standard on Assurance Engagements (ISAE) 3000 (amended) - Assurance Engagements Other Than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB).

We have met the independence and other ethical requirements of the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including the International Standards of Independence) issued by the International Ethical Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA).

Independent limited assurance report on the Remuneration Report of AD Plastik d.d. (continuation)

We apply International Standard on Quality Management (ISQM) 1, Quality Management for Firms that Perform Audits or Reviews of Financial Statements, or Other Assurance or Related Services Engagements, issued by the IAASB. The standard requires that we design, implement and enforce a quality management system, including policies and procedures related to compliance with ethical requirements and professional standards and with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

The scope of a limited assurance engagement is significantly less than the scope of a reasonable assurance engagement with respect to risk assessment procedures, including an understanding of internal control and the procedures implemented in response to the assessed risks. The nature and extent of our procedures have been determined based on risk assessment and our professional judgment to express a limited assurance conclusion. Procedures included:

- enquiries,
- on the sample, a review of the relevant documentation,
- verification of compliance of the content of the Report according to the Applicable criteria.

Our engagement did not include an audit or review of the Remuneration Report or the related accounting and other records on the basis of which it was compiled.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our limited assurance conclusion.

Limitations in the preparation of the Remuneration Report

The interpretation of performance results is to some extent subjective because it takes into account both qualitative and quantitative aspects. Due to the inherent subjectivity in interpreting qualitative reward criteria, but also subjectivity applied in measuring quantitative goals (for example, related to measuring results for the year), different acceptable methodologies for measuring the achievement of individual goals are possible. Furthermore, various other estimates and judgments were used in the preparation of the Remuneration Report, including, but not limited to: compliance with the remuneration policy; the manner in which the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board support the long-term success of the Company and the manner in which the benchmarks for assessing that performance have been applied; an explanation of how workers' remuneration was taken into account in calculating average remuneration and what is the composition of workers included in that calculation.

Applicable criteria

The applicable criteria for determining the individuals who will be included in the Remuneration Report and the requirements related to the publication of their remuneration are contained in the provisions of Article 272 r, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Corporations Act.

Statement of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board

The Management Board and the Supervisory Board of the Company state that the Remuneration Report for the year 2023 is accurate and complete and includes all required information as specified in provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 272 r of the Corporations Act.

Independent limited assurance report on the Remuneration Report of AD Plastik d.d. (continuation)

Limited assurance conclusion

Based on the procedures performed and evidence obtained, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Remuneration Report for the year 2023 is not prepared, in all material respects, in such a way as to contain information specified in provisions of the paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 272 r of the Corporations Act.

This conclusion should be considered in context with the remainder of our limited assurance report, especially in context with the Limitations in the preparation of the Remuneration Report and the Restrictions on the use of our report paragraphs.

Restrictions on the use of our report

This report is intended solely for the purpose specified in Article 272 r of the Corporations Act. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we accept or assume no responsibility and deny any liability to any party other than the Company for our work, for this independent limited assurance report, or for the conclusions we have reached.

REMUNERATION REPORT OF MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISORY BOARD MEMBERS FOR 2023

1. Introduction

In 2023, the Company's revenue grew compared to 2022, which is primarily related to the growth of customer orders in the EU market due to the normalization of supply chains and purchase of semiconductors. However, the Company's business operations in 2023 were still characterized by uncertainty and the strong influence of external factors, primarily caused by the consequences of the Russian-Ukrainian crisis, which were particularly manifested in inflationary pressures on the costs of wages, materials and services, as well as in decrease in customer orders in the Russian market. The primary activities of the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board in 2023 were aimed at preserving financial stability and optimizing costs, reducing negative external factors and business sustainability with a focus on commercial and development activities through the continuation of sealing new deals and the realization of contracted development projects.

This Remuneration Report is based on the Companies Act, the Remuneration Policy of the Management Board Members, the Decision on the Remuneration of the Supervisory Board Members, internal acts, individual manager's contracts, and the Supervisory Board's decision dated May 24, 2022, by which the Supervisory Board deviated from the Remuneration Policy temporarily for 2021 and 2022, all for the reasons explained in detail in the Remuneration Report for 2022 available on the Company's website.

2. Management Board members

By the decision of the Supervisory Board of July 2, 2020, adopted in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Charter, the Company's Management Board was appointed 4 (four) members for the term of office of 5 (five) years.

Management Board members who held that position during 2023:

Zlatko Bogadi	Management Board Member	01 Jan 2023 – 31 Dec 2023
Josip Divić	Management Board Member	01 Jan 2023 – 31 Dec 2023

President and Management Board members are employed by the Company, and their remuneration is determined by individual manager's contracts in accordance with the Remuneration Policy and internal acts of the Company that apply to all employees of the Company (Collective Agreement of the Company and the Ordinance on salaries and other material rights of employees).

The remuneration of the President and the Management Board members of the Company is divided into three categories:

- Fixed remuneration: consists of the basic monthly salary expressed in its gross amount.
- Other benefits: form an integral part of fixed remuneration and relate to the rights from the individual manager's contract, namely: the cost of using a private vehicle for official and private purposes, and life insurance policy. Management Board members who do not reside at the seat of the employer have the right to cover the costs of housing and transportation within the defined limit. Management Board members are also entitled to appropriate awards, financial support, jubilee award for continued employment with the Company or its legal predecessors, food allowance, gift for a child, and salary compensation, all in terms of the provisions of the Collective Agreement of the Company or other general acts of the Company.
- Variable remuneration: is an award (bonus) that can be paid to the President and the Management Board members in accordance with the results achieved in the business year or depending on the realization of certain key business indicators determined by the individual manager's contracts.

REMUNERATION POLICY FOR MANAGEMENT BOARD MEMBERS

1. Introduction – starting points and objectives of the Remuneration Policy

The maximum amount of remuneration of the members of the Management Board and to what extent does remuneration contribute to the company's business strategy and long-term development (Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 1 and 2 of the CA)

The Company is a multinational company with eight production facilities in five countries, whose operational activities cover five continents and more than twenty countries. AD Plastik Group (hereinafter: Group) is the leading company specialising in the development and production of interior and exterior car components in Croatia and one of the leading companies in Eastern Europe. The Group's corporate culture is based on sustainability, encouraging cooperation and recognising excellence.

This Remuneration Policy shall establish a remuneration system for members of the Management Board by defining transparent rules and procedures for determining remuneration of the Management Board members that aligns interests of the Management Board members with long-term interests as well as successful and ethical implementation of the business strategy and development of the Company and the entire Group.

The total remuneration of a member of the Management Board for a particular year can amount to a maximum of the total fixed annual salary of an individual member of the Management Board, together with the annual variable remuneration (bonus), which in total can amount to a maximum of 200% of the annual gross salary earned in the year for which the variable remuneration is awarded, if the variable remuneration is paid in money, i.e. annual net salary if the variable remuneration is paid in Company shares, as well as other benefits, all as detailed in the following provisions of this Policy.

2. Fixed and variable parts of remuneration and their share in total remuneration (Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 3 of the CA)

This Remuneration Policy shall establish an appropriate balance between the variable and fixed remuneration of the Management Board members required to promote transparent and efficient management.

Fixed remuneration is determined by an individual manager's contract that defines the terms of employment between a member of the Management Board and the Company, and specifies particular additional benefits for the Management Board member (hereinafter: Contract). The fixed remuneration of the Management Board members shall reflect the relevant professional experience, competence and responsibility of the Management Board members with a view to attract and retain the highest quality key personnel of the Company, all for the purpose of achieving all strategic long-term plans and objectives of the Company and the Group.

The variable remuneration shall be directly linked to the realisation of financial, non-financial, and key strategic objectives of the Company and the Group.

The Management Board members are employed by the Company and their remuneration is determined under the Contract and, to the extent applicable, the Company's internal acts.

The share of the annual fixed remuneration in the total annual remuneration of the Management Board members shall amount to at least 33% of their total annual remuneration, depending on the amount of the realised variable part of remuneration.

Remuneration of the Company Management Board members shall be divided as follows:

2.1 Fixed remuneration:

Fixed remuneration shall consist of a monthly salary set by the Contract in a fixed amount. The salary of the Management Board members should reflect their relevant professional and work experience, competences and the level of responsibility, and its amount should be sufficient to provide financial security and stability, i.e. ensure the independence of a Management Board member from the variable part of remuneration, while corresponding to the level of responsibility of a position in which key decisions of the Company are made.

The salary shall include remuneration for working outside the daily working hours and for working on Sundays and holidays.

Other benefits

In line with the best local practices, the Contract may provide for additional benefits such as:

- use of an official vehicle for business and private purposes;
- covering the cost of a life insurance policy premium or voluntary pension savings, or payment of an equivalent value in cash or Company shares, at the option of the Management Board member;
- covering the costs of renting an apartment, including utility costs, as well as travel costs for members of the Management Board whose residence is more than 100 km away from the Company's headquarters;
- covering the cost of an annual medical examination and the cost of a supplementary and/or additional health insurance premium for the purpose of promoting health protection of the Management Board members.

2.2 Variable remuneration:

Variable remuneration means the remuneration that may be paid to the Management Board members in accordance with the realised annual financial and non-financial objectives defined by the Supervisory Board of the Company, and a positive trend in the realisation of the Group's key strategic objectives. The objectives defined by the Supervisory Board of the Company must be challenging so that only outstanding results are rewarded, and must be set in such a way that the Management Board members are not tempted to take excessive risks that are not in line with the Company's strategy, and that they do not encourage unethical behaviour.

The amount of variable remuneration of the Management Board members shall be specified in the Contract, ranging from 8% to 100% of the annual gross salary earned in the year for which the variable remuneration is awarded if the variable remuneration is paid in cash, i.e. of the annual net salary if the variable remuneration is paid in Company shares (in accordance with the rules provided in Article 5, item (a) of this Policy).

For the President of the Management Board, the Contract may provide for special criteria and the variable remuneration amount of an additional 50% of the annual gross salary earned in the year for which the variable remuneration is awarded if the variable remuneration is paid in cash, i.e. of the annual net salary if the variable remuneration is paid in Company shares (in accordance with the rules provided in Article 5, item (a) of this Policy).

For the purposes of calculating the variable remuneration "annual gross salary", i.e. "annual net salary" shall mean the basic salary without other benefits defined in the Contract.

A member of the Management Board shall be entitled to opt for payment of the variable remuneration in Company shares instead of cash. If a member of the Management Board opts for payment of the variable remuneration in Company shares, such remuneration shall be determined in accordance with Article 5, item (a) of this Policy.

The Supervisory Board may also include in the Contract an additional long-term variable remuneration for all or individual members of the Management Board. The long-term variable remuneration may be agreed up to the amount of an additional 50% of the annual gross salary earned in the year for which the variable remuneration is awarded if the variable remuneration is paid in cash, i.e. 50% of the annual net salary if the variable remuneration is paid in Company shares.

3. Criteria for payment of variable remuneration (Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 4 of the CA)

- (a) The criteria, i.e. the objectives on the realisation of which the payment and amount of the variable remuneration depend, shall be defined in more detail by the Contract, in particular taking into account the following:
- financial performance indicators of the Group defined in the Group's annual plan, such as sales revenues, EBITDA, debt, net profit and other financial indicators, whereas at least two objectives must be realised, of which one is the realised net profit above 80% of the targeted (planned) amount;
 - non-financial performance indicators of the Group, such as a positive evaluation of the Group's performance by independent bodies and, where necessary, indicators associated with corporate social responsibility; and
 - a positive trend in the realisation of the Group's key strategic objectives defined in the Master Strategy and/or the mid-term plan, which means that it may be justifiably concluded from the fluctuations in the Group's financial results that the key strategic objectives are being realised according to the indicators defined in the Contract, i.e. that those objectives will be, in the context of foreseeable circumstances, realised within the given period.

The criteria for payment of the variable part of remuneration shall be set in such a way that the Management Board members are motivated to achieve the Group's long-term development and to contribute through their activities to the realisation of the business strategy and long-term development of the Company and the Group.

If the Contract with a member of the Management Board provides for the right of the Management Board member to receive long-term variable remuneration, the Contract should also define the additional long-term objectives or objectives associated with the successful realisation of specific projects for which the Management Board member is entitled to receive long-term variable remuneration.

(b) Methods to determine whether the criteria are fulfilled

Depending on whether they fulfilled the criteria for payment of the variable part of remuneration, the Management Board members shall realise the right to payment of the variable remuneration for the previous financial year when the Supervisory Board adopts the Group's integrated annual report for the previous year.

In line with internal rules and upon proposal of the Remuneration Committee, the Supervisory Board of the Company shall adopt a decision on fulfilment of the conditions for payment of the variable remuneration at the session in which it decides on the Company's integrated annual report. When evaluating the criteria, the Supervisory Board should take into account the degree and scope of realisation of the set objectives, all in accordance with the Contracts and this Remuneration Policy.

4. Restrictions and refund of the variable part of remuneration
(Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 6 of the CA)

The Company shall not be entitled to claim a refund of the variable part of remuneration from the Management Board members.

5. Payment of variable remuneration in shares
(Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 7 of the CA)

(a) Variable remuneration shall be paid in cash or Company shares, at the option of the Management Board member.

If the Management Board member opts for payment of the variable remuneration in Company shares, the number of shares to be awarded shall be determined on the basis of the ratio between the net amount of the variable remuneration paid in shares and the average share price in the month preceding the month in which the decision was adopted.

The payment of the bonus in shares shall be regulated in more detail and realised by concluding a separate share transfer agreement between the Company and the Management Board member, and the shares shall be acquired immediately after the conclusion of the said agreement.

(b) After the acquisition of such shares, the Management Board member may not dispose of them for at least two years from the day they were awarded to him/her, unless his/her membership in the Management Board expires within the listed period of two years. In that case, after the end of his/her term of office, the ex-member of the Management Board may freely dispose of the awarded shares.

(c) The payment of the variable remuneration in Company shares contributes to the realisation of the Company's objectives by giving the Management Board members an additional personal interest for sustainable and development operations of the Company, as well as additionally motivating the Management Board members to achieve the objectives of annual and mid-term plans of the entire Group.

6. Manager's contract
(Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 8 of the CA)

(a) Duration and termination of the Contract

The Contract shall be concluded for the duration of the term of office of an individual member of the Management Board.

Before the expiry of the period of his/her appointment, the term of office of the Management Board member may be terminated at his/her own request or based on the decision of the Supervisory Board in accordance with the provisions of the CA. The termination notice period shall be defined by the Contract.

(b) Severance pay

The right to severance pay, its amount and conditions for payment shall be exercised by the Management Board members pursuant to the Contract.

(c) Voluntary pension and health insurance; purchase of qualifying periods

The Company may include in the Contract its obligation to pay voluntary retirement insurance for the Management Board member in the case that the Management Board member decides to use this right instead of a life insurance policy.

If, after the Contract has expired, the Management Board member goes into early retirement, the Company shall neither pay voluntary health insurance nor shall be obliged to purchase qualifying periods for the Management Board member.

7. Taking into account remuneration and working conditions of employees
(Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 9 of the CA)

When determining remuneration of the Management Board members, the terms of remuneration and working conditions of senior management in the Company at the level of sector directors, operating units, executive directors and directors of subsidiaries operating within the Group were taken into account, as well as of other companies on the labour market comparable in terms of their size, business activity, geographical scope of operations and/or complexity.

8. Adoption of the Remuneration Policy and conflict of interest
(Article 247a, paragraph 1, items 10 and 11 of the CA)

The Remuneration Committee shall propose the Remuneration Policy to the Supervisory Board, which shall provide other proposals in line with internal rules. All members of the Supervisory Board shall participate in adopting the Remuneration Policy for Management Board Members based on a proposal by the Remuneration Committee.

The Supervisory Board shall submit the adopted Remuneration Policy to the General Assembly of the Company for approval.

Pursuant to Article 276 of the CA, if the General Assembly fails to approve the Remuneration Policy, the Supervisory Board shall submit its revised Remuneration Policy at the first next session of the General Assembly, where it will be voted on.

For the purpose of avoiding conflicts of interest, the Contracts shall contain provisions on non-competition during and after employment in the Company, as well as provisions on the obligation of non-disclosure of trade secrets. The Management Board members shall be bound by enforceable legal regulations on the prevention of conflict of interest and internal acts.

9. Authority of the Supervisory Board to temporarily deviate from the Remuneration Policy
(Article 247a, paragraph 2 of the CA)
